SPECIAL NOTICE

The Breeding Right that is being sold is as described in the Breeding Right agreement that will transfer the Breeding Right to the Purchaser. A summary of the Breeding Right is set out below for information only. The successful Purchaser must sign The Breeding Right Agreement to acquire the Breeding Right and within that document it must confirm that it has relied exclusively upon its own appraisals, examinations and inspections and/or those carried out by third parties on its behalf in respect of its purchase of the Breeding Right. Any prospective purchaser is strongly recommended to read the Breeding Right agreement and take its own legal advice before making a bid.

1. The Breeding Right will confer upon the Purchaser an entitlement to have one mare approved by The National Stud serviced by the Stallion in each Northern Hemisphere breeding season while the Stallion stands at The National Stud.
2. The Breeding Right will also confer upon the Purchaser an entitlement to have one further mare serviced by the Stallion in either of the 2023, 2024 or 2025 Northern Hemisphere breeding seasons.
3. The Breeding Right shall not entitle the Purchaser to participate in the management and/or control of the Stallion or in any other benefit of ownership other than those outlined above. Furthermore, the Purchaser shall have no obligation as regards to cost of maintaining the Stallion as a result of this agreement.
4. It shall be for the Purchaser to insure the Breeding Right to such value and against such risks as the Buyer sees it.
5. Any nomination will be subject to the terms of The National Stud's Yearly Nomination Form (a copy of which is available on request).
6. If the Purchaser decides in any year to sell his nomination he must ensure the notification to The National Stud is made in accordance with the Breeding Right Agreement.
7. The Stallion Owner has pre-emption rights in respect of any sale of the Breeding Right.
8. The Stallion Owner shall be entitled to sell the Stallion at any time without any liability to the Purchaser save that the Breeding Right Holder shall receive the sum of 0.5% of the total sale price (following deduction of any tax and costs of sale including Agent's commissions) such payments are in respect of compensation of the loss of future Breeding Rights. The entitlement shall not grant the Holder any share or other right or interest in the Stallion.
9. The Buyer will need to enter into a Breeding Right agreement with the Seller and a deed of sale with the Seller and Tattersalls. These documents are available upon request by email to tattersallsonline@tattersalls.com
10. For further enquiries, please contact The National Stud at stallions@nationalstud.co.uk
11. The breeding right is sold with UK VAT.
