SPECIAL NOTICE

The Breeding Right that is being sold is as described in the Breeding Right agreement and the deed of novation that will transfer the Breeding Right to the Purchaser. A summary of the Breeding Right is set out below for information only. The successful Purchaser must sign a deed of novation to acquire the Breeding Right and within that document it must confirm that it has relied exclusively upon its own appraisals, examinations and inspections and/or those carried out by third parties on its behalf in respect of its purchase of the Breeding Right. Any prospective purchaser is strongly recommended to read the Breeding Right agreement and the deed of novation and take its own legal advice before making a bid.

1. The Breeding Right will confer upon the Purchaser an entitlement to have one mare approved by Overbury Stud serviced by the Stallion in each Northern Hemisphere breeding season while the Stallion stands at Overbury Stud.
2. The Breeding Right shall not entitle the Purchaser to participate in the management and/or control of the Stallion or in any other benefit of ownership other than those outlined above. Furthermore, the Purchaser shall have no obligation as regards to cost of maintaining Stallion as a result of this agreement.
3. It shall be for the Purchaser to insure the Breeding Right to such value and against such risks as the Buyer sees it.
4. Any nomination will be subject to the terms of Overbury Stud's standard form of Nomination Agreement (a copy of which is appended to the Breeding Right agreement).
5. If the Purchaser decides in any year to sell his nomination he must ensure the notification to Overbury Stud is made in accordance with the Breeding Right Agreement.
6. Overbury Stud has pre-emption rights in respect of any sale of the Breeding Right.
7. Overbury Stud shall be entitled to sell the Stallion at any time after 15th July 2022 without any liability to the Purchaser save that Overbury Stud will pay to the Purchaser, in the event of such sale, a sum equal to zero point five per cent (0.5%) of the net proceeds of sale.
